

Spend your evenings on the roles that deserve them.

Rolespect helps you decide which roles deserve an application, check that a posting is real, and line your resume up against what the job asks for. It is free to every job seeker, and it never invents experience or rewrites your resume on its own. Bradley Wendling built it after 25 years in nonprofit operations, while running his own job search in Houston.

SIX STATIONS, ONE SEARCH

Board

Every role you are weighing, and what to do next on each.

Scout

Builds the daily search you run with a free AI assistant.

Decide

Confirms a posting is real and tests it against your own rules on pay, place and schedule.

Apply

Checks your resume against the posting, line by line.

Connect

Helps you write to a person, not a portal.

Prepare

Interview cards, and an offer weighed nine ways.

START IN ABOUT TEN MINUTES
